

The Voice
Article Submission

Guidelines

- Articles should be on a timely topic relevant to the general membership.
- Articles should be approximately 450-500 words.
- Articles should provide objective and general advice that does not include a direct reference to your company's expertise.
- The opportunity to promote your organization will be in the "By-line" at the end of the article. The "By-line" can be two to three sentences that include your name, title, and organization, brief summary of experience, your telephone number and website address.
- You may also send a logo and a headshot. Please attach JPG files that are 2.5" wide. All files should be RGB and a minimum of 150 dpi.

Note:

- If you are not an experienced writer, we suggest that you have your article reviewed and proofread by a chamber member qualified to ensure your article meets standard article submission guidelines. Please contact the chamber if you need a list of resources.

Submissions

It is our intention to use articles in the order in which they are received. We reserve the right to review articles to determine if the content and material is applicable for our membership.